Kelli Smith

Just a reminder that this Monday is our Field Trip to Animas Museum! We are so excited to learn about the local and historical school of Durango with our first graders!

Please sign the permission form located in your Docomunts if you haven't done so already. It indicates whether or not your child requires a school sack lunch and also if you will be able to join us as a volunteer.

Also, for those of you who can volunteer, please meet us at Animas Museum at 10:30am.

Thanks so much!

Kelli
